

1. INTRODUCTION

Northern Star Resources Limited (Northern Star) procures a variety of goods and services from a diverse supplier base and looks to partner with Suppliers who share Northern Star's safety, environmental, social and governance standards.

Northern Star will actively seek and show preference to Suppliers who respect and adopt positive safety, environmental, social and governance standards and who demonstrate alignment with the standards contained in this Supplier Code of Conduct. Northern Star's requirements of its Suppliers are detailed below in relation to:

- Safety
- Environment
- Social and Governance

2. SCOPE

This Supplier Code of Conduct (Supplier Code) sets out the minimum standards of conduct expected from all Suppliers wishing to do business with Northern Star. Northern Star defines 'Suppliers' as any business or individual that provides goods or services to Northern Star under contract.

Suppliers shall comply with their contract terms and the laws, rules and regulations of the jurisdictions where they do business with Northern Star. Suppliers, and all sub-contractors working on their behalf, are expected to review and fully understand the content of this Supplier Code and to comply with all provisions specified in their contracts including provisions, which relate to the content of this Supplier Code.

3. NORTHERN STAR'S MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENTS

Northern Star acknowledges human rights as a legitimate set of moral principles in relation to which every human being is inherently entitled to, regardless of their personal, social, economic, cultural or geographic circumstances.

Northern Star condemns all human rights abuses, including modern slavery practices in all its forms. Modern slavery is a business risk for every industry and sector, that has severe consequences for victims.

Northern Star recognises its role in protecting the human rights of all people involved in, or impacted by, our business practices. We take meaningful steps to identify and address our modern slavery risks and maintain responsible, transparent supply chains.

Northern Star is motivated to partner with Suppliers in identifying and implementing a plan to remediate any modern slavery offences or risks of human slavery in the Supplier's supply chain. Northern Star requires any individual or organisation which supplies goods or services to Northern Star (Supplier) to:

- a) adhere to this Supplier Code of Conduct, which includes standards in relation to modern slavery, in order to:
 - (i) mitigate the risk of modern slavery breaches occurring in Northern Star's supply chain, and
 - (ii) to promote and develop within Northern Star's supply chain a deeper understanding and awareness of Northern Star's expectations and standards in relation to human rights and the risks of modern slavery breaches in Northern Star's supply chain;
- b) conduct their own annual supply chain enquiries to understand better the potential for risks of modern slavery breaches in their supply chain, and to identify any known or suspected modern slavery breaches in their supply chain;
- c) remediate any modern slavery breaches, if any are identified;
- d) respond in a transparent, honest manner to any request for information about its supply chain, and disclose to Northern Star the results of enquiries, upon request, and
- e) disclose to Northern Star any confirmed or suspected breaches of human rights in the Supplier's supply chain as soon as is practicable upon the Supplier becoming aware.

Northern Star reserves the right to conduct random checks on the Supplier's sub-contractors, and to conduct audits on the Supplier's supply chain contracts and sub-contractors.
